

Custom Tours

Customize your own group tour for a once in a lifetime travel adventure. Work with the team of Travel Dream West to make your specific travel ideas a reality. Bring a group of interested individuals and we can customize guided tours to match the participants' interests. From photography to bird watching, rock hounding to hiking we can create a tour that allows you to do the things you want to without the hassle of driving and planning.

Photography Tour - Do you like to photograph unique landscapes and cities of the West? Whether your group is experienced or just starting out, we will make sure you'll take some amazing photographs. One of our guides has a degree in Photography and will take you to exquisite sites, paying special attention to early morning and evening hours.

Hiking and Adventure Tour - Hike the beautiful landscapes of the Western USA in one of our custom group tours. From easy to medium hikes up mountains, through flower filled valleys, to unique volcanic landscapes, along sandy shores on the Pacific Ocean, there is no shortage of scenery. To add a bit of excitement include such activities like white water rafting, kayaking or horseback riding.

Bird Watching Vacation - Focus on the birds, not on planning and driving. The team at Travel Dream West will work with you in designing a custom bird watching vacation tour. Bring your binoculars, your bird identification book and plenty of patience. Contact us now and we can start planning your group adventure!

Historical Vacations - There is no denying that the Western United States has fascinating history. Whether you are particularly interested in Native American heritage and culture, cowboy country, or focused primarily on modern US history, Travel Dream West can customize a tour for you and your friends or club. Contact us and we will be happy to work with you!

Rock Hounding - Are you a hobby rockhound or is your mineral club looking for a unique experience? At Travel Dream West we can customize a group tour just for you! Dig for colorful obsidian in California, sift for opal in Nevada, collect agates and jaspers in Oregon, or find rare fish fossils in Wyoming. Bring your rock pick, shovel and enthusiasm and we'll provide the perfect sites for rock hounding.

Fun Family Vacations - We know how much energy it takes to travel with children. The West has a lot to offer for families looking for that entertaining vacation that leaves both kids and parents satisfied. From unique children's museums and lovely natural parks to aquariums and amusement parks there is always something to keep everyone busy. Do you know more than one family wanting to go on a fun trip together, then contact us!
